Communisis will also have the right to reject the Goods as though they had not been accepted for twenty Business Days after any defect in the Goods has become apparent.
- 9.7. Goods rejected pursuant to clauses 9.5 and 9.6 shall be returned to the Supplier at the Supplier's request and at the Supplier's risk and expense. Alternatively, if the Supplier fails to collect the rejected Goods within a reasonable time after Communisis has given it notice of rejection of the Goods Communisis may dispose of the rejected Goods in such manner as it thinks fit provided that it shall account to the Supplier for the net proceeds of sale (if any). If any of the Goods or Services are so rejected, without prejudice to any other right of Communisis, Communisis may purchase replacement Goods or Services from an alternative supplier and any additional expense incurred and/or any losses or expenses (if any) incurred by Communisis resulting from the Goods or Services not being in accordance with the Contract shall be borne by the Supplier.
- 9.8. If Communisis agrees that the Goods can be delivered in instalments, or the Services can be performed in stages, then each instalment or stage will be treated as a separate Contract. Without prejudice to any other right or remedy, Communisis will have the right, but not the obligation, to treat all the Contracts for the total Purchase Order as repudiated if the Supplier fails to deliver or perform any instalment or stage and to reject any or all of the instalments or stages for the total Purchase Order if Communisis is entitled to reject any one instalment or stage.
- 9.9. The Supplier shall supply Communisis with any instructions or other information required to enable Communisis to accept delivery of the Goods and performance of the Services at least five Business Days before the delivery of the Goods or performance of the Services.
- 9.10. Communisis shall not be obliged to return any packaging materials to the Supplier, whether or not the Goods are accepted by it.
- 9.11. If the Goods are not delivered or the Services are not performed on the due date then, without prejudice to any other remedy, Communisis shall be entitled to cancel the Contract in whole or in part.
- 9.12. The Supplier shall provide evidence of the date and time of delivery and the quantity of the Goods delivered when requested so to do by Communisis.

10. ORIGIN AND INSTRUCTIONS

- 10.1. Upon receipt of a request from Communisis the Supplier shall provide to Communisis evidence of the place of origin of the Goods or any part of the Goods or of raw materials utilised in their manufacture.
- 10.2. The Supplier shall submit with the Goods full instructions for use and clear warnings with respect of anything which may reasonably be done or omitted to be done in relation to the Goods and which could render them unsafe.

11. RISK AND PROPERTY

- 11.1. Subject to clause 11.2, ownership of and risk in the Goods will pass to Communisis on delivery (which will occur after the Goods have been unloaded and stacked).
- 11.2. If the Goods are paid for prior to delivery ownership (but not risk) of the Goods shall pass to Communisis on payment.
- 11.3. All items including materials, equipment, tools, Free Issue Materials, dyes and moulds supplied by Communisis to the Supplier and all Proofs will at all times:
 - 11.3.1. be and remain the exclusive property of Communisis;
 - 11.3.2. be held by the Supplier in safe custody at its own risk;
 - 11.3.3. be maintained and kept in good order and condition by the Supplier until returned to Communisis;
 - 11.3.4. not be disposed of other than in accordance with Communisis' written instructions; and
 - 11.3.5. not be used otherwise than as authorised by Communisis in writing.
- 11.4. The risk in materials issued by Communisis to the Supplier for incorporation in the Goods including Free Issue Materials shall pass to the Supplier on delivery.
- 11.5. Without prejudice to any other rights of Communisis, the Supplier shall deliver up the Free Issue Materials to Communisis on Communisis' demand whether or not they have been altered or processed. Any surplus Free Issue Materials shall be disposed of at Communisis' discretion. Waste of the Free Issue Materials arising from bad workmanship or the default or negligence of the Supplier shall be made good at the Supplier's expense.

12. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY RIGHTS

- 12.1. Communisis authorises the Supplier to use those of its Intellectual Property Rights (if any) in any materials provided by Communisis to the Supplier for the purposes of exercising its rights and performing its obligations under the Contract only. The Supplier will have no other rights whatsoever in respect of Communisis' Intellectual Property Rights in those materials and upon completion of the Contract will return to Communisis all such materials containing or embodying the Intellectual Property Rights.
- 12.2. The Supplier warrants that neither the performance of the Services nor the Goods, their use, resale or importation, infringes the Intellectual Property Rights of any third party except to the extent that any infringements arise directly from the use by the Supplier of any Specifications, drawings, samples or descriptions provided by Communisis.
- 12.3. All Intellectual Property Rights arising in connection with the Contract shall be the property of Communisis, and the Supplier hereby assigns all such Intellectual Property Rights to Communis and, where permissible in accordance with local law, waives any and all moral rights which may arise. The price of the Goods and/or Services shall include any applicable special remuneration for the assignment. The parties shall execute all documents necessary to give effect to this clause 12.3.

- 12.4. The Supplier grants Communis a non-exclusive, perpetual, irrevocable, royalty-free, transferable, sub-licensable licence (or as the case may be, sub-licence) throughout the world to use such of the Supplier's or its licensors' Intellectual Property Rights which are reasonably required in order that Communis may enjoy the full benefit of the Intellectual Property Rights assigned under clause 12.3.
- 12.5. All Intellectual Property Rights in materials of any Communis' customer held by the Supplier may be used for the purposes of exercising its rights and performing its obligations under the Contract only. The Supplier will have no other rights whatsoever in respect of Communis' customer's Intellectual Property Rights and upon completion of the Contract or on Communis' earlier request will return to Communis all materials containing or embodying those Intellectual Property Rights.

13. CONFIDENTIALITY

- 13.1. The Supplier shall protect the Confidentiality and Integrity of all information, data, technical or commercial know-how, specifications, inventions, initiatives or processes which are of a confidential nature and have been disclosed to the Supplier by Communis or its agents and any other confidential information concerning Communis' business or the business of Communis' actual or potential clients, customers and suppliers which the Supplier may obtain. The Supplier shall disclose such confidential material to its employees only after prior approval from Communis and acceptance of the Communis confidentiality agreement. This disclosure shall be made on a strictly need to know basis for the purpose of discharging the Supplier's obligations to Communis under the Contract and the Supplier shall ensure that such employees are subject to the same obligations of confidentiality as bind the Supplier.

14. DATA PROTECTION AND DATA SERVICES

- 14.1. Where the Supplier provides Data Services (which term means the provision of data Goods or data Services) to Communis or to any member of Communis's Group under the Contract, it shall do so on the terms of the Communis standard data licence and sub-licence agreement notified to the Supplier from time to time provided always that the parties will comply with the Data Protection Laws in connection with the supply of the Data Services. In all other cases, the terms at clauses 14.2 to 14.14 shall apply.
- 14.2. If the Supplier is outside of the EU, the provisions of this clause 14 shall apply notwithstanding that the Data Protection Laws do not directly apply to the Supplier. The Supplier is required to make itself familiar with the Data Protection Laws.
- 14.3. Communis authorises the Supplier to Process the Agreement Personal Data during the term of the Contract (and such further period as notified to the Supplier by Communis in writing) as a Data Processor/Processor solely for the purpose and to the extent described in the Data Processing Annex for the purpose of providing products, Goods and/or Services to Communis in accordance with the Contract.
- 14.4. In performing the Services and its other obligations under the Contract the Supplier will:
 - 14.4.1. comply with the Data Protection Laws;
 - 14.4.2. not cause (i) Communis, (ii) any other member of its Group and/or (iii) any client of Communis and/or any member of its Group to breach any obligation under the Data Protection Laws; and
 - 14.4.3. notify Communis without undue delay if it identifies any areas of actual or potential non-compliance with the Data Protection Laws or the Contract, without prejudice to its obligations to comply with, or to any rights or remedies which Communis may have for breach of, the Data Protection Laws or the Contract.

- 14.5. Except for Authorised Sub-Processors to the extent set out in the Data Processing Annex, the Supplier will not engage or use any third party for the Processing of Agreement Personal Data or permit any third party to Process Agreement Personal Data or otherwise publish, disclose or divulge Agreement Personal Data to any third party without the prior written consent of Communisis.
- 14.6. If the Supplier appoints a Sub-Processor, the Supplier will ensure that, prior to the Processing taking place, there is a written contract in place between the Supplier and the Sub-Processor that specifies the Sub-Processor's Processing activities and imposes on the Sub-Processor equivalent and no less onerous terms as those imposed on the Supplier in the Contract. The Supplier will procure that Sub-Processors will perform all obligations set out in the Contract and the Supplier will remain responsible and liable to Communisis, the other members of Communisis's Group and each of their clients for all acts and omissions of Sub-Processors as if they were its own.
- 14.7. The Supplier will:
- 14.7.1. Process the Agreement Personal Data only on documented instructions (including the Contract) from Communisis or the relevant member of its Group (acting on behalf of the relevant Data Controller / Controller where relevant) unless the Supplier or the relevant Sub-Processor is required to Process Agreement Personal Data to comply with United Kingdom, European Union (as it is made up from time to time) or European Union member state Applicable Laws, in which case the Supplier will notify Communisis of such legal requirement prior to such Processing unless such Applicable Laws prohibit notice to Communisis on public interest grounds;
 - 14.7.2. if the Supplier has any uncertainty regarding Communisis's instructions and the parameters of its processing activities in connection with them, immediately notify Communisis to seek clarification on such instructions and/or parameters (as relevant);
 - 14.7.3. immediately inform Communisis in writing if, in its reasonable opinion, any instruction received from Communisis or a member of its Group infringes any Data Protection Laws;
 - 14.7.4. without prejudice to clause 14.7.1, ensure that Agreement Personal Data will only be used for the purpose and to the extent described in the Data Processing Annex;
 - 14.7.5. without prejudice to clause 14.7.4, not without the prior written consent of Communisis:
 - 14.7.5.1. convert or use any Agreement Personal Data into anonymised, pseudonymised, depersonalised, aggregated or statistical data;
 - 14.7.5.2. use any Agreement Personal Data for "big data" analysis or purposes; or
 - 14.7.5.3. match or compare any Agreement Personal Data with or against any other Personal Data (whether the Supplier's or any third party's);
 - 14.7.6. ensure that any person authorised to Process Agreement Personal Data:
 - 14.7.6.1. has committed themselves to confidentiality or is under an appropriate statutory obligation of confidentiality; and
 - 14.7.6.2. complies with this clause 14; and
 - 14.7.6.3. is appropriately reliable, qualified and trained in relation to their Processing of Agreement Personal Data;
 - 14.7.7. keep all Agreement Personal Data confidential in accordance with clause 13 save that any provisions under clause 13 permitting the Processing

(including disclosure) of Agreement Personal Data will be subject to the provisions of this clause 14;

- 14.7.8. at the option of Communisis at any time upon request, securely delete or return to Communisis or transfer to any replacement supplier, customer or other third party nominated in writing by Communisis any and/or all Agreement Personal Data promptly, and securely delete any remaining copies and, as requested by Communisis, promptly certify (via a director) when this exercise has been completed; and
 - 14.7.9. except as otherwise stated in any other provision(s) of the Contract that expressly deal with the deletion or retention of data, securely delete Agreement Personal Data within 90 days of (i) the performance of the Services that relate to such Agreement Personal Data; or (ii) expiry or termination of the Contract (whichever the sooner). This Supplier will, as requested by Communisis, promptly certify (via a director) when this exercise has been completed.
- 14.8. The Supplier will not make an International Transfer without Communisis's prior written consent (save that this clause 14.8 will not affect any International Transfers permitted under the Contract). If Communisis gives its prior written consent to an International Transfer, before making that International Transfer the Supplier will demonstrate or implement, to Communisis's satisfaction, appropriate safeguards for that International Transfer in accordance with Data Protection Laws and will ensure that enforceable rights and effective legal remedies for Data Subjects are available. If the appropriate safeguards demonstrated or implemented by the Supplier (or the relevant Data Processor/Processor) in accordance with this clause 14.8 are deemed at any time not to provide an adequate level of protection in relation to Agreement Personal Data, the Supplier will, without undue delay and within any timeframes notified to the Supplier by Communisis in writing, implement such alternative measures as may be required by (i) Communisis, (ii) the relevant member of Communisis's Group and/or (iii) the client of Communisis and/or member of its Group, (as required by Communisis) to ensure that the relevant International Transfer and all resulting Processing are compliant with Data Protection Laws. The Supplier or the relevant Sub-Processor will not need to comply with the conditions set out in this clause 14.8 if it is required to make an International Transfer to comply with United Kingdom, European Union (as it is made up from time to time) or European Union member state Applicable Laws, in which case the Supplier will notify Communisis of such legal requirement prior to such International Transfer unless such Applicable Laws prohibit notice to Communisis on public interest grounds.
- 14.9. The Supplier will:
- 14.9.1. implement, and assist (i) Communisis, (ii) the relevant member of Communisis's Group and (iii) where relevant, each client of Communisis and/or member of its Group to implement, technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk presented by Processing the Agreement Personal Data, in particular from a Data Security Incident;
 - 14.9.2. notify Communisis immediately:
 - 14.9.2.1. if at any time the Supplier or a Sub-Processor is aware of any reason why it is unable to comply with clause 14.9.1, without prejudice to its obligation to comply with, or to any rights or remedies which Communisis may have for breach of, clause 14.9.1; and
 - 14.9.2.2. of any changes that it makes to the technical and organisational measures to protect the Agreement Personal Data and shall not be entitled to reduce any of the security measures that protect the Agreement Personal Data without Communisis' express written consent;
 - 14.9.3. comply with:

- 14.9.3.1. Communisis' Security Baseline Standards (copies available upon request) as updated, amended and/or replaced by Communisis giving written notice to the Supplier from time to time; and
- 14.9.3.2. with such encryption obligations as are notified to it by Communisis, but in any event shall ensure (i)) the encryption using AES-256 encryption or higher of all Agreement Personal Data stored in digital or electronic form and/or transmitted across external networks; and (ii) the secure management of cryptographic keys; and
- 14.9.4. notify Communisis by e-mail at data.protection- supplier@communisis.com and in writing addressed to Communisis' Data Protection Compliance Team to Communisis's registered address (or such other address as Communisis may have communicated to the Supplier from time to time) without undue delay and in any event within 24 hours after becoming aware of a reasonably suspected, "near miss" or actual Data Security Incident, including the nature of the Data Security Incident, the categories and approximate number of Data Subjects and Agreement Personal Data records concerned, the likely consequences of the Data Security Incident and any measure proposed to be taken to address the Data Security Incident and to mitigate its possible adverse effects. Where, and in so far as, it is not possible to provide all the relevant information at the same time, the information may be provided in phases without undue delay, but the Supplier (and Sub-Processors) may not delay notification under this clause 14.9.4 on the basis that an investigation is incomplete or ongoing;
- 14.9.5. promptly (and in any event within two Business Days) notify Communisis of any request that it receives for exercise of a Data Subject's rights under the Data Protection Laws or communication or complaint that it receives from a Data Subject or Supervisory Authority or other third party in connection with Agreement Personal Data;
- 14.9.6. provide reasonable assistance to (i) Communisis, (ii) the relevant member of Communisis's Group and (iii) where relevant, each client of Communisis and/or member of its Group in responding to requests for exercising Data Subjects' rights under the Data Protection Laws and communications and complaints from Data Subjects and Supervisory Authorities and other third parties in connection with Agreement Personal Data, including by appropriate technical and organisational measures, insofar as this is possible;
- 14.9.7. not, without Communisis's prior written consent, make or permit any announcement in respect of a Data Security Incident or respond to any request for exercise of a Data Subject's rights under the Data Protection Laws or communication or complaint from a Data Subject or Supervisory Authority in connection with Agreement Personal Data; and
- 14.9.8. assist (i) Communisis, (ii) the relevant member of Communisis's Group and/or (iii) where relevant, each client of Communisis and/or member of its Group in:
 - 14.9.8.1. documenting any Data Security Incidents and reporting any Data Security Incidents to any Supervisory Authority and/or Data Subjects;
 - 14.9.8.2. taking measures to address Data Security Incidents, including, where appropriate, measures to mitigate their possible adverse effects; and
 - 14.9.8.3. conducting privacy impact assessments of any Processing operations and consulting with Supervisory Authorities, Data Subjects and their representatives accordingly.

- 14.9.9. make available to (i) Communisis, (ii) the relevant member of Communisis's Group and (iii) where relevant, each client of Communisis and/or member of its Group all information necessary to demonstrate compliance with the obligations set out in this clause 14;
 - 14.9.10. allow for and contribute to audits, including inspections, conducted by Communisis or another auditor mandated by Communisis;
 - 14.9.11. promptly provide complete and accurate information in response to any due diligence requests or questionnaires as requested by Communisis relating to any actual or potential Processing or Personal Data by the Supplier; and
 - 14.9.12. except to the extent expressly permitted in accordance with the Contract, ensure that it does not transmit in any form or by any means whatsoever Agreement Personal Data outside its usual places of business or that of its Sub-Processors.
- 14.10. The Supplier:
- 14.10.1. warrants on an ongoing basis that the Data Processing Annex (as amended and updated) contain accurate and complete details of the Processing of Agreement Personal Data;
 - 14.10.2. will promptly notify Communisis in writing in advance of any changes required to the Data Processing Annex to reflect any changes to the Processing of Agreement Personal Data;
 - 14.10.3. will be responsible for its own costs in complying with its obligations under this clause 14;
 - 14.10.4. acknowledges that the Agreement Personal Data may contain Personal Data obtained by third parties and Communisis will be reliant on such third parties to ensure that any such Personal Data provided for Processing in connection with the Contract is provided in compliance with the Data Protection Laws. Subject to clause 15.7, provided that Communisis has used reasonable endeavours to require the relevant third party or third parties to provide information that complies with the Data Protection Laws, Communisis shall have no liability (whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, restitution, pursuant to an indemnity or otherwise) for any injury, death, damage or direct, indirect or consequential loss (all three of which terms include pure economic loss, loss of profits, loss of business, depletion of goodwill and like loss) to the Supplier arising out of or in connection with any failure of Agreement Personal Data that has been supplied to Communisis by a third party (including any clients of Communisis and/or any member of the Communisis Group) to comply with the requirements of Data Protection Laws; and
 - 14.10.5. will act reasonably and in good faith to agree to amendments to the Contract as requested by Communisis to reflect the impact of any changes to Data Protection Laws on the Contract and/or the Goods and/or Services.
- 14.11. The Supplier will prepare and securely maintain a record of all categories of Processing activities carried out on behalf of (i) Communisis, (ii) the relevant member of Communisis's Group and (iii) each client of Communisis and/or member of its Group in relation to the Agreement Personal Data, including as a minimum: (i) its name and contact details and details of its Data Protection officer or other person with responsibility for data protection compliance; (ii) the categories of Processing it carries out on behalf of Communisis, other members of Communisis's Group and each of their clients; (iii) International Transfers; (iv) a general description of the technical and organisational security measures referred to in clause 14.9.1; and (v) the same information in relation to any Sub-Processor, together with its name and contact details (together the "Data Record"). The Supplier will promptly upon request securely supply a copy of the Data Record to Communisis.

- 14.12. The Supplier acknowledges that Communisis and its Group are reliant on the Supplier to provide Goods and Services to their clients that are compliant with Data Protection Laws and that a failure by the Supplier to comply with this clause 14 and/or the Data Protection Laws could result in losses, liabilities, costs, damages, claims, proceedings and/or expenses being suffered by (i) Communisis; (ii) members of Communisis' Group; and/or (iii) clients of Communisis and/or the members of its Group.
- 14.13. The Supplier will indemnify Communisis, each other member of Communisis's Group and each client of Communisis and/or the members of its Group against the Recoverable Liabilities, in each case arising out of or in connection with any breach by the Supplier or any Sub-Processor of any of its obligations under this clause 14 (including any failure or delay in performing, or negligent performance or non-performance of, any of those obligations) and/ or the Data Protection Laws.
- 14.14. Any breach of this clause 14 by the Supplier or any Sub-Processor will be a material breach of the Contract which is not capable of being remedied, irrespective of whether any financial loss or reputational damage arises, and irrespective of the level of any financial loss or deprivation of benefit arising, as a consequence of such breach.

15. WARRANTIES AND LIABILITY

- 15.1. The Supplier warrants to Communisis that the Goods and Services:
- 15.1.1. will be of high quality and fit for any purpose held out by the Supplier or made known to the Supplier by Communisis in writing or orally at the time the Purchase Order is placed;
 - 15.1.2. will be free from any defects in design, material and workmanship for a period not shorter than the longer of the Supplier's warranty or 24 months from delivery, unless industry practice indicates a longer warranty period or unless otherwise agreed in writing with Communisis;
 - 15.1.3. will correspond in all respects with the Purchase Order and with any relevant Specification or sample provided by Communisis to the Supplier;
 - 15.1.4. will comply with all applicable statutory requirements, governmental, local authority and other regulations, orders, relevant standards and EC requirements and regulations (whether voluntary or not) relating to the Goods and Services and their sale and supply;

 - 15.1.6. will be performed to such standards of quality generally observed in the industry for similar services.
- 15.2. Without prejudice to any other remedy, if any Goods or Services are not supplied or performed in accordance with the Contract or Communisis terminates the Contract in accordance with clause 17.2 then Communisis may (whether or not the Goods have been accepted or the Services performed):
- 15.2.1. require the Supplier to repair the Goods or to supply replacement Goods or Services in accordance with the Contract within seven days of receipt of such a request from Communisis;
 - 15.2.2. at Communisis' sole option, and whether or not Communisis has previously required the Supplier to repair the Goods or to supply any replacement Goods or Services, to treat the Contract as discharged by the Supplier's breach and require the repayment of any part price which has been paid;

- 15.2.3. cancel any or all remaining instalments or stages if the Contract has not already been terminated;
 - 15.2.4. refuse to accept any subsequent delivery of the Goods or performance of the Services which the Supplier attempts to make;
 - 15.2.5. recover from the Supplier any additional expenditure reasonably incurred by Communisis in obtaining goods or services equivalent to the Goods or Services in substitution from another supplier; and/or
 - 15.2.6. claim damages for any additional costs, losses or expenses incurred by Communisis which are in any way attributable to the Supplier's breach of the Contract or failure to deliver the Goods or perform the Services on the due date or at all.
- 15.3. The Supplier warrants and represents to Communisis that:
- 15.3.1. it complies and shall continue to comply with the requirements of the Modern Slavery Act 2015; and
 - 15.3.2. without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Supplier further warrants and represents that:
 - 15.3.2.1. it has thoroughly investigated its labour practices and those of its direct suppliers to ensure that there is no Forced Labour or Slavery (as defined in clause 15.4 below) used anywhere in the Supplier's business or by any of the direct suppliers of the Supplier;
 - 15.3.2.2. it has put in place all necessary processes, procedures, investigations and compliance systems to ensure that the warranties and representations made in this clause 15.3 will continue to be true and accurate at all times during the term of this Agreement; and
 - 15.3.2.3. it has taken and will take in the future all necessary actions and investigations to validate compliance with the warranties and representations made in this clause 15.3.
- 15.4. For the purposes of clause 15.3, "Forced Labour or Slavery" means "forced labour" and "slavery" as such terms are defined by the International Labour Organisation ("ILO") from time to time, including in any present or future ILO conventions.
- 15.5. The Supplier will indemnify, keep indemnified and hold harmless Communisis from and against all costs (including the cost of enforcement), expenses, liabilities (including any tax liability), injuries, direct loss (including, without limitation, additional operative and administrative costs and expenses; wasted expenditure or charges rendered unnecessary and incurred by Communisis; any additional cost of procuring additional goods or services and implementing additional services; any loss of, corruption to or alteration of data; any fines or penalties or expenses from a regulator or otherwise; any increase in bad debt; and all legal costs (on a full indemnity basis)) and judgments which Communisis incurs or suffers as a consequence of:
- 15.5.1. a direct or indirect breach or negligent performance by the Supplier or failure or delay in performance of the terms of the Contract;
 - 15.5.2. any claim that the performance of the Services or the Goods infringe, or their importation, supply, receipt, use or resale infringes the British or foreign patent, copyright, registered design, design right, trademark, trade name or other Intellectual Property Rights of any other person, except to the extent that the claim arises from compliance with any Specification supplied by Communisis;

- 15.5.3. any act or omission of the Supplier or its employees, agents or sub-contractors in supplying, delivering and installing the Goods, or in the performance of the Services;
 - 15.5.4. a failure to deliver the Goods on the due date for delivery, or to provide the Services on the due date for performance and/or in accordance with the Conditions, or in respect of a direct or indirect breach or negligent performance or failure in performance by the Supplier of the Contract;
 - 15.5.5. claims made against Communisis in respect of any loss, damage, penalty or expense sustained by Communisis or its servants or agents or by any customer or other third party to the extent that such loss, damage, penalty or expense was caused by, relates to or arises from the Goods or the Services including any claim against Communisis under applicable consumer protection legislation in respect of the Goods; or
 - 15.5.6. any negligent, defamatory or illegal act or omission of the Supplier in connection with the provision, production or delivery of the Goods and/or Services.
- 15.6. Subject to clause 15.7, Communisis' aggregate liability under the Contract (whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty, restitution, pursuant to an indemnity or otherwise) for any injury, death, damage or direct, indirect or consequential loss (all three of which terms include pure economic loss, loss of profits, loss of business, depletion of goodwill and like loss) howsoever caused will be limited to the price of the Goods and Services payable under the Contract.
- 15.7. Neither party excludes or limits its liability (if any) to the other for personal injury or death resulting from its negligence; for fraud; or for any other matter which it would be illegal to exclude or limit or to attempt to exclude or limit its liability.

16. FORCE MAJEURE

- 16.1. The Supplier shall not be liable to Communisis by reason of any delay in performing, or any failure to perform, any of its obligations in relation to the Goods or the Services, if the delay or failure was beyond the Supplier's reasonable control pursuant to an act of God.
- 16.2. If the Supplier cannot supply Communisis in accordance with the terms of a Purchase Order because of an event described in clause 16.1, and if Communisis reasonably anticipates that this may prevent Communisis performing obligations to its own customers, Communisis may terminate immediately by written notice that part of, or all of, the Purchase Order which the Supplier cannot fulfil.

17. TERMINATION

- 17.1. Communisis may at any time and for any reason cancel the Purchase Order in whole or in part by notice to the Supplier. If Communisis cancels the Contract pursuant to this clause 17.1 the Supplier shall:
 - 17.1.1. discontinue all work on the Purchase Order; and
 - 17.1.2. deliver to Communisis the Goods or products of the Services as at the time of termination in accordance with clause 9, and

Communisis shall pay the Supplier for work in progress at the time of termination calculated on a pro-rata basis, taking into account the time worked by the Supplier and the value of the Goods or products of the Services to Communisis. Any decision that Communisis makes on the Supplier's entitlement to payment for work in progress under this clause shall, except for manifest error, be final and conclusive and binding on the Supplier.

17.2. Communisis may by written notice to the Supplier terminate the Contract immediately if the Supplier:

17.2.1. is in material breach of any of the terms of the Contract and, where the breach is capable of remedy, the Supplier fails to remedy such breach within seven days (or such shorter period as may be specified) after service of a written notice from Communisis, specifying the breach and requiring it to be remedied. Failure to deliver Goods or perform any Services on the due date in accordance with clause 9.2 is a material breach of the terms of the Contract that is not capable of remedy;

17.2.2. commits a series of persistent minor breaches which when taken together amount to a material breach;

17.2.3. where such termination is permissible by local law, suffers an Insolvency Event; or

17.2.4. has a change in its Control; or

17.2.5. Communisis reasonably anticipates that one of the above circumstances is about to occur.

17.3. Communisis may by written notice to the Supplier terminate the Contract immediately if it suspects, acting reasonably, that the Supplier is or may be in breach of clause 18.

18. COMPLIANCE WITH RELEVANT REQUIREMENTS

18.1. The Supplier shall:

18.1.1. comply with all Applicable Laws, statutes, regulations, and codes relating to anti-bribery and anti-corruption including but not limited to the United Kingdom's Bribery Act 2010 and the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and/or relevant applicable local legislation ("Relevant Requirements");

18.1.2. not engage in any activity, practice or conduct which would constitute an offence under sections 1, 2 or 6 of the United Kingdom's Bribery Act 2010 if such activity, practice or conduct had been carried out in the UK;

18.1.3. have and shall maintain in place throughout the term of the Contract its own policies and procedures, including but not limited to adequate procedures under the United Kingdom's Bribery Act 2010 and the Modern Slavery Act 2015, to ensure compliance with the Relevant Requirements and clause 18.1.2, and will enforce them where appropriate;

18.1.4. promptly report to Communisis any request or demand for any undue financial or other advantage of any kind received by the Supplier in connection with the performance of the Contract;

- 19.5 Communis will be entitled, by giving written notice to that effect to the Supplier, to require the Supplier to remove from the performance of the Contract any of the Supplier's officers, employees, agents, sub-contractors or any other person who performs services for or on behalf of it in connection with the Contract and in respect of whom the Supplier is in breach of any of its obligations under clause 19.1 or any of its warranties under clause 19.2.

The Supplier will be responsible for the observance and performance by such persons and subcontractors of those terms and will be directly liable to Communis for any breach by such persons and subcontractors of any of such terms.

20. PERSONNEL

- 20.1. The parties acknowledge and agree that where all or part of the Goods and/or Services cease to be provided by the Supplier for any reason and where all or part of the Goods and/or Services are instead provided by Communis and/or the New Supplier, there may be a relevant transfer of the Returning Employees to Communis and/or the New Supplier for the purposes of TUD (a “Relevant Transfer”). If there is a Relevant Transfer, the employment of the Returning Employees shall transfer to Communis and/or the New Supplier in accordance with TUD with effect from the Subsequent Transfer Date.

- 20.2. Where TUD applies and there is to be a Relevant Transfer, the parties shall co-operate in agreeing a list of Returning Employees prior to the Subsequent Transfer Date, and shall co-operate in ensuring compliance with TUD and the orderly transfer of the Returning Employees to Communis and/or the New Supplier.
- 20.3. Where TUD applies and there is to be a Relevant Transfer, the Supplier shall not later than six months prior to the expiry of the Contract (or, if earlier, within 30 days of notice being given of termination of the Contract) to the extent lawfully permitted provide Communis and/or the New Supplier with the following details:
 - 20.3.1. a list of names of all its personnel who are assigned to or engaged in the provision of the Goods and/or Services (the “Potential Returning Employees”);
 - 20.3.2. job title, age, length of continuous services, current remuneration, benefits, and notice periods of the Potential Returning Employees;
 - 20.3.3. terms and conditions of employment of the Potential Returning Employees, including any particulars that the Supplier is obliged to give under section 1 of the Employment Rights Act 1996 (or any equivalent legislation in the country in which the Returning Employees are located);
 - 20.3.4. any current disciplinary or grievance proceedings ongoing in respect of the Potential Returning Employees and any such proceedings in the preceding two years;
 - 20.3.5. any claims, current or which the Supplier has reasonable grounds to believe will be brought by the Potential Returning Employees or their representatives or which have been brought in the preceding two years;
 - 20.3.6. all benefit schemes or arrangements (whether contractual or not) applicable in respect of the Potential Returning Employees; and
 - 20.3.7. information on any collective agreements which will have effect in relation to the Potential Returning Employees after the Subsequent Transfer Date.
- 20.4. The Supplier shall provide any updates of the details required by clause 20.3 at regular intervals to be specified by Communis.
- 20.5. Where TUD applies and there is to be a Relevant Transfer, the Supplier shall indemnify Communis (both for itself and a New Supplier) against all costs, claims, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) incurred by Communis and/or a New Supplier in connection with or as a result of:
 - 20.5.1. any claim or demand by any Returning Employee or a trade union or other body or person representing a Returning Employee (whether in contract, tort, under statute, pursuant to European law or otherwise) arising from any act, fault or omission of the Supplier on or before the Subsequent Transfer Date;
 - 20.5.2. any failure to inform and/or consult (collectively or otherwise) with any Returning Employee or any trade union or other body or person representing a Returning Employee in accordance with any obligation or requirement of TUD or any obligation or requirement arising there from;
 - 20.5.3. any failure to elect representatives in accordance with TUD or at all in respect of any Returning Employee; and

- 20.5.4. a claim by any person who transfers or alleges that they have transferred from the Supplier to Communis or the New Supplier under TUD, who is not a Returning Employee and/or whose name is not included in the list of Potential Returning Employees as referred to in clause 20.3.
- 20.6. If TUD applies and there is a Relevant Transfer so as to transfer the employment of any person employed by the Supplier to Communis or any New Supplier (including any Returning Employee), then if Communis or such New Supplier shall serve a notice terminating the employment of such person (including any Returning Employee) within six months after the date of such transfer (or the date that Communis or the New Supplier becomes aware of such transfer) or a court or other body with requisite authority determines that such person's employment shall be terminated, or such person's employment is otherwise deemed to be terminated:
- 20.6.1. the Supplier shall indemnify Communis (for itself and a New Supplier) in respect of any termination costs including but not limited to notice pay, payment in respect of accrued but untaken holiday and statutory or contractual redundancy payment payable in respect of such person, and any compensation or damages which Communis or such New Supplier is obliged to pay to such person for unfair and/or wrongful dismissal or as a reasonable settlement of a claim for such compensation or damages, together with any other damages incurred as a consequence of the dismissal of such person, including but not limited to any costs arising from or in connection with any claims relating to social security benefits payable to such person, or any increased insurance costs incurred as a result of a person being incapacitated due to sickness at the time of the termination of employment; and
- 20.6.2. if, following termination of such person's employment by Communis or a New Supplier a court reinstates such person as an employee of Communis or a New Supplier, the Supplier shall indemnify Communis or a New Supplier against any and all legal costs relating to the reinstatement and ongoing employment of that employee until such time as a compromise agreement is entered into between Communis or a New Supplier and the relevant employee and such employee exits Communis' or a New Supplier's employment. The legal costs under this indemnity shall include reasonable costs associated with the compromise agreement.
- 20.7. If TUD is not applicable to or has not been implemented in any form in the jurisdiction in which the Goods and/or Services are provided, and there are local law or laws in that jurisdiction which apply to the transfer of some or all of the Goods and/or Services from the Supplier to Communis and/or a New Supplier and which may compel the transfer of the employment of any personnel assigned to or engaged in the provision of the Goods and/or Services, then the parties acknowledge and agree that in such a case they shall use their best endeavours (and shall procure that any New Service Provider uses its best endeavours) to co-operate with one another and ensure that such local law or laws are efficiently and effectively complied with in respect that transfer of the relevant personnel from the Supplier to Communis and/or the New Supplier, and that the transfer is orderly. The said best endeavours shall include (but shall not be limited to) ensuring that, in accordance with any timescales which are prescribed by local law or laws (as a minimum):
- 20.7.1. a list of the personnel who will transfer from the Supplier to Communis and/or the New Supplier is agreed between the parties in good time before the said transfer;
- 20.7.2. any information which the parties are required to provide to the personnel who will transfer from the Supplier to Communis and/or the New Supplier (whether verbally or in writing) is provided in an appropriate format, in sufficient detail and within good time; and
- 20.7.3. any consultation which the parties are required to carry out in respect of or with personnel who will transfer from the Supplier to Communis and/or the New Supplier is carried out in good time before the said transfer.

- 20.8. In respect of the circumstances described in clause 20.7 above, the Supplier shall indemnify Communis (both for itself and a New Supplier) against all costs, claims, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) incurred by Communis and/or a New Supplier in connection with or as a result of:
- 20.8.1. any claim or demand (whether in contract, tort, under statute, pursuant to European or local law or otherwise) by any individual who transfers from the Supplier to Communis and/or the New Supplier, or a trade union or other body or person representing the individual, arising from any act, fault or omission of the Supplier on or before the date of the said transfer;
 - 20.8.2. any failure by the Supplier to comply with any obligation or requirement of the local law or laws applicable to the said transfer or any obligation or requirement arising there from; and
 - 20.8.3. any claim by any individual who transfers or alleges that they have transferred from the Supplier to Communis or the New Supplier whose name is not included in the list referred to in clause 20.7.1.
- 20.9. In respect of the circumstances described in clause 20.7 above, if there is a transfer of the employment of any individual employed by the Supplier to Communis or any New Supplier, then if Communis or such New Supplier shall serve a notice terminating the employment of such within six months after the date of such transfer (or the date that Communis or the New Supplier becomes aware of such transfer) or a court or other body with requisite authority determines that such individual's employment shall be terminated, or such individual's employment is otherwise deemed to be terminated:
- 20.9.1. the Supplier shall indemnify Communis (for itself and a New Supplier) in respect of any statutory or contractual redundancy payment payable in respect of such individual, and any compensation or damages which Communis or such New Supplier is obliged to pay to such individual in respect of their dismissal or as a reasonable settlement of a claim for such compensation or damages, together with any other damages incurred as a consequence of the dismissal of such individual, including but not limited to any costs arising from or in connection with any claims relating to any social security benefits payable to such person, or any increased insurance costs incurred as a result of the individual being incapacitated due to sickness at the time of the termination of employment; and
 - 20.9.2. if, following termination of such individual's employment by Communis or a New Supplier a court reinstates such individual as an employee of Communis or a New Supplier, the Supplier shall indemnify Communis or a New Supplier against any and all legal costs relating to the reinstatement and ongoing employment of that individual until such time as a compromise agreement (or the local equivalent in the jurisdiction in which the Goods and Services are provided) is entered into between Communis or a New Supplier and the relevant individual and such employee exits Communis' or a New Supplier's employment. The legal costs under this indemnity shall include reasonable costs associated with the compromise agreement (or the local equivalent in the jurisdiction in which the Goods and Services are provided).
- 20.10. If TUD is not applicable to or has not been implemented in any form in the jurisdiction in which the Goods and/or Services are provided, and there is no local law or laws in that jurisdiction which apply to the transfer of some or all of the Goods and/or Services from the Supplier to Communis and/or a New Supplier which may compel the transfer of the employment of any personnel assigned to or engaged in the provision of the Goods and/or Services, then the Supplier shall indemnify Communis (both for itself and a New Supplier) against all costs, claims, liabilities and expenses (including reasonable legal expenses) incurred by Communis and/or a New Supplier in connection with or as a result of any claim or demand (whether in contract, tort, under statute, pursuant to European or local law or otherwise) by any individual assigned to or engaged in the provision of the Goods and/or Services, arising from any act, fault or omission of the Supplier.

21. GENERAL

- 21.1. Each right or remedy of Communisis under the Contract is without prejudice to any other right or remedy of Communisis whether under the Contract, at law or otherwise.
- 21.2. Communisis may assign, license or sub-contract all or any part of its rights or obligations under the Contract without the Supplier's consent.
- 21.3. The Supplier shall not be entitled to assign or sub-contract (whether to a provider of factoring or invoice finance facilities or any other party) or deal in any other manner with any of its rights and obligations under the Contract or any part of it (including the creation of any charge, trust or other legal or equitable interest) without the prior consent of Communisis in writing.
- 21.4. The Supplier shall not (except with the prior written consent of Communisis) during the term of the Contract or for 12 months following its termination either directly or indirectly solicit or entice away (or seek to attempt to solicit or entice away) from the employment of Communisis any person employed by Communisis' group who has been engaged in the receipt of the Goods and Services from the Supplier or the management of the Contract or any significant part thereof either as principal, agent, employee, independent contractor or in any other form of employment or engagement other than by means of a national advertising campaign open to all-comers and not specifically targeted at Communisis' staff.
- 21.5. No failure or delay by Communisis to exercise any right, power or remedy will operate as a waiver of it nor will any partial exercise preclude any further exercise of the same, or of some other right, power or remedy.
- 21.6. If any condition or part of the Contract is found by any court, tribunal, administrative body or authority of competent jurisdiction to be illegal, invalid or unenforceable then that provision will, to the extent required, be severed from the Contract and will be ineffective without, as far as is possible, modifying any other provision or part of the Contract and this will not affect any other provisions of the Contract which will remain in full force and effect.
- 21.7. Save as expressly stated otherwise in these Conditions the parties to this Contract do not intend that any of its terms will be enforceable by any person not a party to it.
- 21.8. The Contract, the Purchase Order and the Specification together with any additional standard Communisis terms referred to in these Conditions ("Incorporated Terms") contain all the terms which Communisis and the Supplier have agreed in relation to the Goods and/or Services and supersede any prior written or oral agreements, implications, arrangements, representations or understandings between the parties relating to such Goods and/or Services. The Supplier acknowledges that it has not relied on, and shall have no remedies in respect of, any statement, warranty, promise or representation (whether made innocently or negligently) made or given by or on behalf of Communisis which is not set out in the Contract, the Purchase Order, the Specification or Incorporated Terms. The Supplier shall have no claim for innocent or negligent misrepresentation based on any statement in the Contract, the Purchase Order, the Specification or any Incorporated Terms. Nothing in this clause 21.8 will exclude any liability which one party would otherwise have to the other party in respect of any statements made fraudulently.
- 21.9. The Supplier shall, and shall procure that its third party suppliers and/or subcontractors (the "Supplier Third Parties") shall, keep and maintain at its normal place of business detailed, accurate and up to date records and books of account showing all payments, receipts and charges relating to the Goods and/or Services, charges under or otherwise relating to the Contract together with any relevant supporting vouchers or other documents (together "the Books and Records"). The Books and Records shall be maintained in accordance with generally accepted accounting practice in the United Kingdom.

- 21.10. In addition to (and without limiting) Communitis' audit rights at clauses 18.3 and 21.9, the Supplier shall, and shall procure that any Supplier Third Parties shall, during the life of the Contract and for 6 years thereafter allow Communitis and any auditors of or other advisers to Communitis to access any of the Supplier's premises and/or premises of Supplier Third Parties, Supplier's personnel and/or personnel of Supplier Third Parties and relevant records (including the Books and Records) as may be reasonably required in order to undertake verification that the Services are being provided and all obligations of the Supplier are being performed in accordance with the Contract.
- 21.11. The Supplier shall, and shall procure that any Supplier Third Parties shall, provide Communitis (and its auditors and other advisers) with all reasonable co-operation, access and assistance in relation to each audit.
- 21.12. The parties shall bear their own costs and expenses incurred in respect of compliance with their obligations under clause 21.10, unless the audit identifies a material breach of this agreement by the Supplier, in which case the Supplier shall reimburse Communitis for all its reasonable costs incurred in the course of the audit.
- 21.13. If an audit under clause 21.10 identifies that the Supplier has failed to perform its obligations under this agreement then, without prejudice to the other rights and remedies of Communitis, the Supplier shall promptly take the necessary steps to comply with its obligations at no additional cost to Communitis.
- 21.14. The Supplier warrants and undertakes that: it has complied with, and each is presently in compliance with, all Applicable Laws restricting or prohibiting transactions with, or the export, provision, purchase or sale of goods and/or services to, any person pursuant to any sanctions administered or enforced by the U.S. Government (including, without limitation, the Office of Foreign Assets Control of the U.S. Treasury Department ("OFAC") or the U.S. Department of State), the United Nations Security Council, the European Union, Her Majesty's Treasury or other relevant sanctions authority (collectively, the "Sanctions Authorities"); Neither the Supplier nor any of its affiliates is a person named on the list of Specially Designated Nationals maintained by OFAC or is otherwise the target or subject of sanctions administered by any other Sanctions Authority (each such person, a "Sanctioned Person") and, to the knowledge of the Supplier none of their respective directors, officers and employees is a Sanctioned Person, and is owned or controlled more than 50% by a sanctioned person.
- 21.15. This Contract shall be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and each party agrees to submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts in relation to any claim or matter arising under or in connection with it.
